

What is a Slave?

A long time ago in our country, some people were forced to work for others without getting paid. These people were called slaves.

Even slave children were forced to work. The slaves could not choose the work to do and had to do what they were told. Many of the slaves worked on farms.

Would you rather work or play?

Circle the pictures that you like to do and put a box around the pictures that are work.

